

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

◆ Abate (কমে যাওয়া, হ্রাস পাওয়া) (to subside, lessen, or moderate)

Hello, Magnus people, the fear of failing will eventually abate as you take consistent steps toward your aspiration of having a seat at IBA. Put enough effort into abating distractions so that you focus on your studies, only areas that matter. A noteworthy thing is that the stress of preparation will abate once you start believing in your abilities and studying steadily.

◆ Aberrant (অস্বাভাবিক, বিচ্যুত) (abnormal or deviant)

Sometimes, taking an aberrant path can lead to discovering new opportunities others overlook. Suppose everyone is memorizing Word Smart, but you are the one absorbing the meaning of the words. You have chosen an aberrant to success. Avoid aberrant habits like procrastination, as they hinder success. Remember, it's okay to feel aberrant compared to others—your unique path may lead to extraordinary achievements.

◆ Abeyance (স্থগিতাবস্থা) (temporary suspension or inactivity)

If your study plan for IBA is in abeyance, use the time to refine your strategies or get energized and come back stronger. Success often requires patience, even if it feels like life is in abeyance. Keep learning during periods of abeyance, such as reflecting on what should you study or what not, as growth never stops.

◆ Abscond (পালিয়ে যাওয়া, আত্মগোপন করা) (to depart secretly and hide)

Instead of trying to abscond from challenges such as the fear of math or English, embrace them as they are key to success at IBA and you will love them eventually. Also, do not abscond from hard work—it's the foundation of all great achievements. Those who abscond from responsibility miss the chance to unlock their true potential.

◆ Abstemious (সংযমী, মিতাচারী) (sparing in eating and drinking; temperate)

Being abstemious with distractions like social media reels or viral topics can help you stay focused on your aspiration of IBA. An abstemious lifestyle teaches discipline, a critical trait for long-term success. Practicing abstemious habits builds self-control, which is key to overcoming setbacks.

◆ Admonish (সতর্ক করা, ভৎসনা করা) (to warn or reprove)

If you are enrolled in my IBA Admission course, I may admonish you to stay focused on your priorities for your own good, don't be sad! When you make mistakes or procrastinate, let the admonishment guide you toward growth rather than discourage you. You must be open to advice, even if it feels like an admonishment, as this is how you will grow yourself as a deserving candidate for IBA.

◆ Adulterate (অশুদ্ধ করা, ভেজাল মেশানো) (to make impure by adding inferior or tainted substances)

Avoid adulterating your goals of IBA with distractions such as other easy-looking opportunities that dilute your focus. Remember, success requires a pure heart and mind—don't let negativity adulterate your journey. Any attempt to adulterate your vision for quick gains can delay your ultimate success.

◆ Aesthetic (শৈল্পিক, সৌন্দর্যবোধসম্পন্ন) (artistic; dealing with or capable of appreciating the beautiful)

Cultivating an aesthetic sense helps you find inspiration even in small things. Design your table cover with the picture of IBA with the business tycoons including you. Be aesthetic about yourself. I want you to surround yourself with an aesthetic environment to boost creativity and motivation. Pursuing your dreams with an aesthetic mindset brings beauty to the journey itself.

◆ Aggregate (একত্র করা, সংগ্ৰহ করা) (to gather; accumulate)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

Success comes from aggregating small victories (such as answering all rights on mini tests of Cliffs Toefl) into a larger achievement (answering all grammar questions correctly during the exam day). Aggregating knowledge of nuances of vocabulary will build the foundation for having a competitive edge in the English section. The key to excellence is the aggregate of consistent effort over time.

◆ Alacrity (উৎসাহপূর্ণ তত্পরতা, দ্রুততা) (cheerful promptness; eagerness)

Approach any math problems with alacrity, as you can't afford to make silly mistakes and lose your marks. Success favours those who take opportunities with alacrity and determination. Showing alacrity during the practice session and most importantly in the exam hall can set you apart from the competition.

◆ Alleviate (উপশম করা, লাঘব করা) (to relieve)

Good habits can alleviate the stress of preparing for a challenging exam. Meditation and self-care help alleviate mental fatigue. Helping others can alleviate feelings of self-doubt by creating a sense of purpose.

◆ Amalgamate (সংযুক্ত করা, একত্র করা) (to combine; unite in one body)

Bringing diverse ideas together can amalgamate into a unique vision for success. Study groups often amalgamate the strengths of each member for better outcomes. Learning to amalgamate knowledge from various sources is a powerful skill for achievers.

◆ Ambiguous (অস্পষ্ট, দ্ব্যর্থক) (unclear or doubtful in meaning)

An ambiguous goal leads to confusion; clarity is the key to success. Avoid ambiguous thoughts by defining what you truly want to achieve. If directions for IBA preparation are ambiguous, seek advice from Magnus Sam to find the right path forward.

◆ Ambivalence (দ্বিমুখীতা, পরস্পরবিরোধী অনুভূতি) (the state of having contradictory or conflicting emotional attitudes)

Ambivalence can arise when making tough decisions, but clarity comes with time and introspection. Overcoming ambivalence requires focusing on your ultimate goals, not temporary fears. Learn to turn ambivalence into action by prioritizing what truly matters.

◆ Ameliorate (উন্নতি করা, উন্নত করা) (to improve)

You can ameliorate your skills by practicing regularly from sources or materials given by Magnus Sam and seeking feedback from him. A growth mindset helps to ameliorate challenges into learning opportunities. Ameliorating your habits one step at a time can lead to great success.

◆ Anachronism (কালবৈষম্য, যুগবিরুদ্ধতা) (something or someone misplaced in time)

Relying solely on outdated methods is an anachronism in a world of constant innovation. Avoid becoming an anachronism by keeping your skills relevant and up-to-date. Success comes from adapting, not clinging to anachronistic beliefs.

◆ Analogous (সাদৃশ্যপূর্ণ, তুলনীয়) (comparable)

Life is analogous to a marathon—persistence matters more than speed. Preparing for exams is analogous to building a house—strong foundations ensure stability. Every challenge is analogous to a puzzle—patience and strategy solve it.

◆ Anarchy (নৈরাজ্য, শাসনহীনতা) (absence of governing body; state of disorder)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

Without discipline, your routine can fall into anarchy, and this will hinder your progress. Success is impossible in a mind filled with anarchy—bring structure to your goals. Avoid mental anarchy by planning each day with purpose and intention.

◆ Anomalous (অস্বাভাবিক, অপ্রত্যাশিত) (abnormal; irregular)

An anomalous result can often lead to innovative discoveries if you stay curious. If your journey seems anomalous compared to others, embrace your uniqueness. Overcoming anomalous challenges proves your strength and determination.

◆ Antipathy (বিদ্বেষ, অপছন্দ) (aversion; dislike)

Avoid antipathy toward tasks you dislike—approach them as learning opportunities. Success demands replacing antipathy with perseverance and a positive attitude. Don't let antipathy for failure hold you back—each setback is a lesson.

◆ Apathy (উদাসীনতা, অনাগ্রহ) (lack of caring; indifference)

Overcoming apathy requires finding a purpose that excites you. Avoid apathy by reminding yourself why your dreams matter. Success comes to those who replace apathy with passion and effort.

◆ Appease (শান্ত করা, প্রশমিত করা) (to pacify or soothe; relieve)

When doubts arise, practicing mindfulness can appease your inner fears. A clear plan for the future can appease anxiety about uncertainty. Kind words can appease a friend's worry and help build trust.

◆ Apprise (অবহিত করা, জানানো) (to inform)

Make sure to apprise yourself of all the opportunities available to succeed. A good mentor will apprise you of strategies to overcome challenges. Always apprise your team about the progress to maintain clear communication.

◆ Approbation (অনুমোদন, স্বীকৃতি) (approval)

Earning approbation from your mentors begins with consistent effort. True approbation comes when your actions align with your values. Success often brings approbation, but it's self-satisfaction that matters most.

◆ Appropriate (অধিকার করা, নিজের করে নেওয়া) (to acquire; take possession of for one's own use)

Be careful not to appropriate credit for others' hard work—honesty leads to respect. Learning to appropriate opportunities at the right time can transform your future. Appropriating good habits ensures steady progress in achieving your dreams.

◆ Arduous (কঠিন, শ্রমসাধ্য) (hard; strenuous)

Achieving your dreams is an arduous journey, but every step strengthens you. Success demands arduous effort, but the rewards are always worth it. Facing arduous challenges builds resilience and shapes your character.

◆ Artless (সরল, প্রত্যক্ষাঙ্গী) (without guile; open and honest)

An artless approach to communication builds trust with others. Staying artless and genuine makes you stand out in a competitive world. Success comes easier when your intentions are artless and sincere.

◆ Ascetic (তপস্বী, কঠোর সংযমী) (practicing self-denial; austere)

An ascetic lifestyle helps you focus on long-term goals over short-term pleasures. Embracing an ascetic approach toward distractions like social media can boost productivity. The ascetic discipline of studying diligently prepares you for future success.

◆ Assiduous (পরিশ্রমী, অধ্যবসায়ী) (diligent)

Being assiduous in your studies ensures a strong foundation for success. Assiduous practice is the hallmark of every great achiever. Success demands assiduous attention to detail and perseverance.

◆ Assuage (উপশম করা, প্রশমিত করা) (to ease or lessen; satisfy; soothe)

Hard work can assuage the fear of failure by building confidence. Reflecting on past successes helps to assuage self-doubt. Acts of kindness often assuage the stress of others, creating a positive impact.

◆ Attenuate (পাতলা করা, দুর্বল করা) (to make thinner or weaken)

Regular breaks during study sessions can attenuate mental fatigue. Poor habits can attenuate progress, so replace them with productive routines. A positive mindset helps attenuate the impact of setbacks on your journey.

◆ Audacious (দুঃসাহসী, সাহসী) (daring; bold)

Taking an audacious step toward your dreams shows confidence and determination. Only the audacious dare to step outside their comfort zones and achieve greatness. An audacious approach to problem-solving can lead to groundbreaking ideas.

◆ Austere (কঠোর, শৌখিনতাহীন) (forbiddingly stern; severely simple and unornamented)

An austere routine may seem difficult, but it leads to immense personal growth. Keeping an austere focus on your goals helps avoid unnecessary distractions. An austere mindset is often required to achieve long-term success.

◆ Autonomous (স্বায়ত্তশাসিত, স্বাধীন) (self-governing; independent)

Building an autonomous learning habit ensures progress even without constant guidance. Becoming autonomous in decision-making is essential for personal growth. An autonomous approach to learning shows initiative and commitment to success.

◆ Aver (জোর দিয়ে বলা, দৃঢ়তার সাথে ঘোষণা করা) (to assert confidently; declare)

To succeed, you must aver your goals with conviction and believe in them. Always aver your achievements with humility to inspire others. Leaders aver their vision confidently to guide others toward success.

◆ Banal (গতানুগতিক, সাধারণ) (hackneyed; commonplace; trite; lacking originality)

Avoid banal ideas by fostering creativity and unique perspectives. Don't let your efforts become banal; strive to stand out with originality. Replacing banal routines with innovative methods keeps you motivated.

◆ Belie (মিথ্যা প্রমাণ করা, ভ্রান্ত ধারণা দেওয়া) (to contradict; give a false impression)

Your actions should never belie your true potential; stay consistent with your values. Success should not belie humility; keep striving to improve. A positive attitude can belie the challenges you face, making you appear resilient.

◆ Beneficent (উপকারী, সদয়) (kindly; doing good)

A beneficent attitude toward others builds strong and meaningful relationships. Being beneficent in your actions inspires others to follow your example. A beneficent heart not only helps others but also nourishes your own spirit.

◆ Bolster (সমর্থন করা, শক্তিশালী করা) (to support; reinforce)

Positive feedback from mentors can bolster your confidence during tough times. Surround yourself with people who bolster your belief in your abilities. Hard work and discipline bolster the foundation of long-term success.

◆ Bombastic (আড়ম্বরপূর্ণ, ফুলানো ভাষা) (pompous; using inflated language)

Avoid bombastic promises; let your actions speak louder than words. Simple and clear communication often achieves more than bombastic language. Strive for authenticity, as bombastic behavior can hinder trust and collaboration.

◆ Boorish (অভদ্র, সংবেদনহীন) (rude; insensitive)

Avoid boorish behavior—it's respect and kindness that open doors to success. Boorish attitudes alienate others; being empathetic builds strong connections. A true achiever knows that boorish manners never lead to lasting relationships.

◆ Burgeon (বিকশিত হওয়া, দ্রুত বৃদ্ধি পাওয়া) (to grow forth; send out buds)

Your skills will burgeon if you practice consistently and remain curious. Confidence burgeons when you celebrate small victories along the way. A positive mindset allows opportunities to burgeon in unexpected ways.

◆ Burnish (ঘষে চকচকে করা, পালিশ করা) (to make shiny by rubbing; polish)

Burnish your skills daily to ensure they shine when the opportunity arises. A strong work ethic helps to burnish your reputation as a dedicated individual. Learning from failures can burnish your character and strengthen your resolve.

◆ Buttress (সমর্থন করা, ঠেস দিয়া শক্ত করা) (to support; prop up)

Strong mentorship can buttress your journey toward success. Discipline and focus buttress the foundation of any great achievement. Positive affirmations buttress your confidence, even in challenging times.

◆ Capricious (খামখেয়ালী, অস্থিরমতি) (unpredictable; fickle)

Avoid being capricious in your goals; consistency is key to long-term success. A capricious attitude toward time management can hinder progress. Stay adaptable but don't let capricious distractions derail your path.

◆ Castigation (তীব্র ভর্ৎসনা, শাস্তি) (punishment; severe criticism)

Constructive castigation can guide you toward improvement when taken positively. Learn to grow from castigation rather than letting it discourage you. The path to success often involves overcoming moments of castigation gracefully.

◆ Catalyst (প্রভাবে গতি সঞ্চারক) (an agent that increases the pace of a chemical or other action)

A mentor can be a catalyst for turning your potential into achievements. Difficulties often act as a catalyst for personal growth and resilience. Positive habits can serve as a catalyst for long-term success.

◆ Caustic (দাহ্য, তীক্ষ্ণ বা ব্যঙ্গাত্মক) (burning; sarcastically biting)

Avoid caustic remarks; kindness paves the way for cooperation and trust. Even in tough situations, stay calm and avoid caustic responses. A caustic tone can damage relationships; choose words that uplift instead.

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

◆ Chicanery (ছলনা, প্রতারণা) (trickery; deception)

Success built on chicanery is fleeting; integrity ensures lasting accomplishments. Avoid chicanery in your dealings—honesty is the hallmark of true leadership. A clear conscience triumphs over the temporary gains of chicanery.

◆ Coagulate (জমাট বাঁধা, ঘনীভূত হওয়া) (to thicken; congeal; clot)

Hard work and dedication can coagulate into lasting success over time. Let your ideas coagulate into a clear vision by refining them daily. As challenges arise, allow your determination to coagulate into resilience.

◆ Coda (উপসংহার, সমাপ্তি সুর) (concluding section of a musical or literary composition; summarizes or concludes)

The final semester of your studies is the coda to years of hard work—make it count. Every project should end with a strong coda that highlights your achievements. Success is the coda to consistent effort and unwavering belief in yourself.

◆ Cogent (জোরালো, যুক্তিসম্মত) (convincing)

A cogent argument for your dreams is backed by dedication and action. Make your vision cogent by articulating it with passion and clarity. A cogent plan leaves no room for doubts and inspires confidence in others.

◆ Commensurate (অনুরূপ, সামঞ্জস্যপূর্ণ) (corresponding in extent, degree, etc.; proportionate)

Your efforts should be commensurate with the magnitude of your dreams. Success demands a commensurate level of hard work and commitment. Achieving greatness requires sacrifices that are commensurate with the rewards.

◆ Compendium (সংক্ষিপ্ত কিন্তু ব্যাপক সারসংক্ষেপ) (a brief, comprehensive summary)

Prepare a compendium of key concepts to revise efficiently before exams. A well-organized compendium of your goals helps maintain focus. Success begins with a clear compendium of actionable steps.

◆ Complaisant (খুশি করতে আগ্রহী, অনুগত) (trying to please; overly polite; obliging)

A complaisant attitude toward mentors can open doors to valuable guidance. Being complaisant at the expense of your principles, however, hinders authenticity. Learn to balance being complaisant and assertive in pursuing your goals.

◆ Compliant (বিনয়ী, নিয়ম মেনে চলা) (yielding; conforming to requirements)

Being compliant with constructive feedback accelerates your personal growth. Success often comes to those who are compliant with rules while innovating within the framework. Avoid being overly compliant—stand firm on your core values when necessary.

◆ Conciliatory (মীমাংসাপ্রসূত, শান্তিপূর্ণ) (reconciling; soothing)

A conciliatory approach helps resolve conflicts and builds strong relationships. Being conciliatory in challenging situations demonstrates emotional intelligence. A calm and conciliatory demeanor paves the way for collaborative success.

◆ Condone (ক্ষমা করা, উপেক্ষা করা) (to overlook; forgive; give tacit approval; excuse)

Do not condone mediocrity in your efforts; always strive for excellence. A mentor may condone minor mistakes if they see genuine progress. While forgiveness is essential, never condone behavior that hinders your growth.

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

◆ Confound (বিস্মিত করা, হতবুদ্ধি করা) (to confuse; puzzle)

Challenging problems may confound you at first, but persistence leads to solutions. Don't let failure confound your confidence—learn from it and grow. A lack of clarity can confound your vision, so always seek guidance when needed.

◆ Connoisseur (শিল্প বা সৌন্দর্যের বিশেষজ্ঞ, রসিক ব্যক্তি) (a person competent to act as a judge of art; a lover of art)

Be a connoisseur of learning by appreciating every opportunity for growth. A true connoisseur of success values both the journey and the destination. Cultivate the mindset of a connoisseur—focus on quality over quantity.

◆ Contention (বিতর্ক, দাবী) (claim; thesis)

The contention that hard work pays off is supported by countless success stories. Your contention for achieving greatness must be backed by action. Never shy away from defending your contention when it aligns with your dreams.

◆ Contentious (কলহপ্রিয়, বিতর্কমূলক) (quarrelsome)

Avoid being contentious in discussions; a calm mind wins respect. Contentious debates often waste time—focus instead on collaborative solutions. Success comes to those who prioritize harmony over being contentious.

◆ Contrite (অনুতপ্ত, অনুশোচনাপূর্ণ) (penitent)

Being contrite about past mistakes allows you to learn and grow. A contrite heart opens the door to self-improvement and forgiveness. Showing contrition for errors builds trust and strengthens relationships.

◆ Conundrum (ধাঁধা, জটিল সমস্যা) (a riddle; difficult problem)

Every success story begins with solving a conundrum others avoided. Treat each conundrum as an opportunity to showcase your creativity and resilience. Learning to navigate life's conundrums makes you stronger and wiser.

◆ Converge (একত্রিত হওয়া, মিলে যাওয়া) (to approach; tend to meet; come together)

Your skills and efforts will converge to create extraordinary outcomes. Dreams converge with reality when you align passion with discipline. Collaboration allows ideas to converge, leading to innovative solutions.

◆ Convolved (জটিল, পাকানো) (coiled around; involved; intricate)

Don't let convolved plans distract you—simplify your path to success. Even convolved problems have solutions when you tackle them step by step. Success is about breaking down convolved challenges into manageable tasks.

◆ Craven (কাপুরুষ, ভীত) (cowardly)

Don't be craven when facing difficulties—boldness leads to breakthroughs. A craven attitude toward failure keeps you from reaching your full potential. True achievers are never craven in the face of adversity.

◆ Daunt (ভয় দেখানো, নিরুৎসাহিত করা) (to intimidate; frighten)

Challenges may daunt you, but persistence turns fear into strength. Don't let setbacks daunt your spirit; they're part of the journey. Facing obstacles with courage ensures they'll never daunt your determination.

◆ Decorum (সৌজন্য, শালীনতা) (propriety; orderliness and good taste in manners)

Maintaining decorum during discussions earns respect from peers. Success is often accompanied by humility and decorum in behavior. Practicing decorum in all aspects of life builds a strong personal brand.

◆ Default (দায়িত্বে ব্যর্থতা, করণীয় কাজ না করা) (failure to act)

Never let procrastination cause you to default on your commitments to yourself. To avoid a default in reaching your goals, create a clear plan and stick to it. Success requires addressing challenges directly rather than falling into default inaction.

◆ Deference (সম্মান প্রদর্শন, বিনয়) (courteous regard for another's wishes)

Showing deference to mentors allows you to gain wisdom from their experiences. True leaders practice deference to others' ideas while remaining confident in their vision. Respect and deference toward constructive criticism help you grow.

◆ Delineate (চিত্রিত করা, স্পষ্টভাবে বর্ণনা করা) (to portray; depict; sketch)

Delineate your goals clearly to make them easier to achieve. A well-delineated plan helps you focus and stay motivated. Success often begins by delineating the steps needed to reach your dreams.

◆ Denigrate (কালিমা লেপন করা, অপমান করা) (to blacken; belittle)

Never let negative people denigrate your efforts; believe in your potential. Avoid denigrating others' work—uplifting them creates a positive environment. Your achievements should inspire others, not denigrate their confidence.

◆ Deride (উপহাস করা, বিদ্রূপ করা) (to ridicule; make fun of)

Don't let others deride your dreams; use their doubts as motivation. Instead of deriding others, focus on improving yourself and setting an example. Success silences those who once derided your potential.

◆ Derivative (অন্য উৎস থেকে উদ্ভূত, অমৌলিক) (unoriginal; obtained from another source)

Avoid derivative ideas; let your creativity shine through originality. Success lies in innovation, not in following derivative paths. While learning from others is important, ensure your work is not purely derivative.

◆ Desiccate (শুকিয়ে ফেলা, শুষ্ক করা) (to dry up)

Don't let negativity desiccate your passion for achieving your goals. Continuous learning ensures that your curiosity never desiccates. Avoid routines that desiccate your enthusiasm—stay inspired and adaptable.

◆ Desultory (অলক্ষ্য, এলোমেলো) (aimless; haphazard; digressing at random)

Avoid desultory efforts—focus your energy on one clear objective at a time. A desultory approach to planning can lead to confusion; structure your tasks. Success demands consistency, not desultory attempts.

◆ Deterrent (প্রতিবন্ধক, বাধা) (something that discourages; hindrance)

Fear of failure can be a deterrent, but overcoming it builds resilience. Strong self-belief acts as a deterrent against negative influences. Effective time management removes deterrents that delay progress.

◆ Diatribes (তীব্র সমালোচনা, তিরস্কার) (bitter scolding; invective)

Turn every diatribe into an opportunity to reflect and grow stronger. Ignore diatribes from naysayers; focus on your own vision of success. Respond to criticism, even if it feels like a diatribe, with calmness and confidence.

◆ Dichotomy (দ্বৈততা, বিভাজন) (split; branching into two parts, especially contradictory ones)

There's often a dichotomy between fear and ambition—choose ambition. Success lies in resolving the dichotomy between hard work and rest. A dichotomy in priorities can hinder growth, so align your goals.

◆ Diffidence (সংকোচ, আত্মবিশ্বাসের অভাব) (shyness)

Overcoming diffidence requires small acts of courage every day. Success favors those who replace diffidence with confidence in their abilities. Push through moments of diffidence by reminding yourself of past accomplishments.

◆ Diffuse (বিস্তৃত, ছড়িয়ে থাকা) (wordy, rambling, spread out like gas)

Avoid diffuse thoughts by focusing on one task at a time. A diffuse plan can confuse you; simplify your steps toward success. Clear communication is key—don't let your ideas become diffuse and hard to follow.

◆ Digression (বিচ্যুতি, মূল বিষয় থেকে সরে আসা) (wandering away from the subject)

Limit digressions in your efforts to stay focused on your priorities. If you notice a digression from your goals, refocus and realign your actions. Success requires minimizing digressions and maintaining a disciplined approach.

◆ Dirge (শোকগীত, শোক প্রকাশের সুর) (a lament with music)

Even a dirge of failure can become a symphony of success with perseverance. Moments of struggle are like a dirge, preparing you for a brighter future. Transform your pain into motivation, letting the dirge fuel your determination.

◆ Disabuse (ভুল ধারণা দূর করা, সংশোধন করা) (to correct a false impression; undeceive)

Let success disabuse others of their doubts about your potential. A good mentor will disabuse you of limiting beliefs and guide you forward. Failure often disabuses you of unrealistic expectations, helping you grow.

◆ Discerning (তীক্ষ্ণ বুদ্ধিসম্পন্ন, দূরদর্শী) (mentally quick and observant; having insight)

A discerning mind spots opportunities others overlook. Success comes to those who are discerning about which paths to pursue. Cultivate a discerning approach to learning to achieve excellence.

◆ Discordant (বিরোধপূর্ণ, অমিল) (not harmonious; conflicting)

A discordant mindset can hold you back—align your thoughts with your goals. Avoid discordant relationships; surround yourself with supportive individuals. Harmony in actions and ideas overcomes any discordant challenges.

◆ Discredit (অখ্যাতি দান করা, বিশ্বাস নষ্ট করা) (to defame; destroy confidence in; disbelieve)

Don't let criticism discredit your hard work—stay focused and determined. Success silences those who attempt to discredit your potential. Avoid discrediting others; instead, uplift and inspire them.

◆ Discrepancy (অমিল, অসঙ্গতি) (lack of consistency; difference)

A discrepancy between your goals and actions can delay success—stay aligned. Addressing discrepancies in your efforts ensures steady progress. Success demands minimizing discrepancies between dreams and dedication.

◆ Discrete (আলাদা, পৃথক) (separate; unconnected; consisting of distinct parts)

Break your tasks into discrete steps to make them more manageable. Each discrete effort contributes to the larger goal of success. Recognize the discrete strengths of your team to maximize outcomes.

◆ Disingenuous (অকৃত্রিম নয়, কৃত্রিম বা ভণ্ডামিপূর্ণ) (lacking genuine candor; insincere)

Avoid being disingenuous in your intentions—authenticity earns trust. Disingenuous efforts rarely lead to meaningful success. True leaders inspire through honesty, not disingenuous promises.

◆ Disinterested (নিরপেক্ষ, নির্লিপ্ত) (unprejudiced; impartial)

A disinterested approach to decision-making ensures fairness and respect. Success often requires being disinterested in negativity and distractions. A mentor's disinterested guidance helps you grow without bias.

◆ Disjointed (অসম্পৃক্ত, বিশৃঙ্খল) (lacking coherence; separated at the joints)

A disjointed plan can hinder progress; aim for clarity and structure. Avoid disjointed efforts by organizing your priorities effectively. Success demands coherence, not disjointed strategies.

◆ Dismiss (খারিজ করা, প্রত্যাখ্যান করা) (to eliminate from consideration; reject)

Never dismiss your potential due to temporary setbacks. Dismiss excuses and focus on actions that move you closer to your dreams. Avoid dismissing feedback—it's often the key to improvement.

◆ Disparage (অবজ্ঞা করা, হেয় করা) (to belittle)

Don't let anyone disparage your efforts—stay confident in your abilities. Avoid disparaging others; celebrating their success inspires collaboration. Success grows from humility, not the urge to disparage others.

◆ Disparate (মূলত ভিন্ন, অসংগত) (basically different; unrelated)

Combining disparate ideas often leads to innovative solutions. Avoid comparing yourself to others with disparate paths—focus on your own growth. Success unites disparate skills and experiences into a unique journey.

◆ Dissemble (গোপন করা, ছদ্মবেশধারণ করা) (to disguise; pretend)

Avoid dissembling your true intentions—authenticity attracts success. Success comes to those who don't dissemble their dreams but work openly for them. Dissembling only delays genuine growth and trust.

◆ Disseminate (ছড়িয়ে দেওয়া, প্রচার করা) (to distribute; spread; scatter like seeds)

Disseminate positivity to inspire those around you on your journey. Sharing knowledge helps disseminate ideas that can lead to collective success. Successful individuals disseminate lessons learned to help others grow.

◆ Dissolution (অবসান, ভঙ্গ বা নৈতিক শিথিলতা) (disintegration; looseness in morals)

Avoid the dissolution of your focus by staying disciplined. A clear vision prevents the dissolution of your goals over time. Success demands integrity—don't let dissolution of values derail you.

◆ Dissonance (বিরোধ, অসামঞ্জস্য) (discord; opposite of harmony)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

Overcome dissonance between thoughts and actions to achieve clarity. Collaborating with others helps resolve dissonance and builds harmony. Dissonance in priorities can hinder progress—align your efforts with your goals.

◆ Distend (ফুলে ওঠা, ফলিত হওয়া) (to expand; swell out)

Let your ambitions distend beyond limits others set for you. A growing mindset helps your skills distend with consistent practice. Success allows opportunities to distend and create new horizons.

◆ Distill (বিশুদ্ধ করা, সারমর্ম সংগ্রহ করা) (to purify; refine; concentrate)

Distill your goals into clear, actionable steps for better focus. Success demands that you distill lessons from failures and refine your strategies. Time management helps you distill your energy into productive efforts.

◆ Diverge (বিচ্ছিন্ন হওয়া, বিভিন্ন দিকে চলে যাওয়া) (to vary; go in different directions from the same point)

Your path may diverge from others', but stay true to your unique journey. Success lies in knowing when to diverge from conventional approaches. Allow creativity to diverge into new, exciting opportunities.

◆ Divest (পরিচ্যাদ করা, বঞ্চিত করা) (to strip; deprive)

Divest yourself of distractions to focus on achieving your dreams. Success requires you to divest old habits that hinder growth. A positive mindset helps you divest negativity and embrace progress.

◆ Document (নথীভুক্ত করা, প্রমাণপত্র প্রদান করা) (to provide written evidence)

Document your progress to track achievements and identify areas for improvement. Success is easier to replicate when you document the steps you took. Keeping a journal to document lessons learned can guide future growth.

◆ Dogmatic (মতামতসম্পর্কিত, বৈরাচারী) (opinionated; arbitrary; doctrinal)

Avoid being dogmatic in discussions; open-mindedness fosters growth. Success requires adaptability, not dogmatic adherence to outdated methods. A dogmatic approach can alienate others—choose collaboration instead.

◆ Dormant (সুপ্ত, অক্রিয়) (sleeping; lethargic; latent)

Your talents may be dormant, but with effort, they can shine brightly. Success awakens when you stop letting your potential remain dormant. A dormant dream needs consistent action to come to life.

◆ Dupe (সহজে ঠকানো ব্যক্তি, প্রতারণা করা) (someone easily fooled)

Don't let fear or negativity dupe you into doubting your abilities. Learn to identify when others try to dupe you, and trust your intuition. Knowledge and awareness ensure you won't be duped by distractions.

◆ Ebullient (উচ্ছ্বাসপূর্ণ, উৎসাহে ভরপুর) (showing excitement; overflowing with enthusiasm)

Approach challenges with an ebullient spirit, and you'll inspire others. An ebullient attitude energizes your journey toward success. Let your passion be as ebullient as your dreams.

◆ Eclectic (নির্বাচনমূলক, বিভিন্ন উৎস থেকে গৃহীত) (selective; composed of elements drawn from disparate sources)

An eclectic approach to learning helps you find innovative solutions. Success often comes from combining eclectic ideas into a unique vision. Stay curious and eclectic in seeking knowledge from diverse perspectives.

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

◆ Efficacy (কার্যকারিতা, ফলপ্রসূতা) (power to produce desired effect)

The efficacy of your actions depends on your consistency and determination. A clear plan enhances the efficacy of your efforts. Success demands testing the efficacy of your strategies and refining them.

◆ Effrontery (ঢালাও সাহস, নির্ভজতা) (impudence; shameless boldness; sheer nerve)

Confidence is key, but avoid effrontery that may alienate others. Tackling challenges with effrontery can sometimes open unexpected opportunities. Balance boldness and humility to avoid being perceived as displaying effrontery.

◆ Elegy (শোকগীতি, শোকের কবিতা বা গান) (poem or song expressing lamentation)

An elegy for past failures can transform into a song of triumph through persistence. Every struggle you face will one day feel like an elegy when you achieve success. Learn to move beyond the elegy of regret and focus on the future.

◆ Elicit (প্রকাশ করা, বের করা) (to draw out by discussion)

Ask thoughtful questions to elicit ideas and solutions from others. Success comes from the ability to elicit insights from your experiences. Constructive feedback helps to elicit your true potential.

◆ Embellish (অলংকৃত করা, সৌন্দর্য বৃদ্ধি করা) (to adorn; ornament; enhance, as a story)

Learn to embellish your work with creativity and precision. Success is not about exaggerating achievements to embellish your story. Use your skills to embellish every opportunity with excellence.

◆ Empirical (অভিজ্ঞতাভিত্তিক, পরীক্ষামূলক) (based on experience)

Success is often built on empirical lessons learned from failures. Test your ideas with empirical evidence to ensure their feasibility. Always back your decisions with empirical knowledge for confidence.

◆ Emulate (অনুকরণ করা, সমকক্ষ হতে চেষ্টা করা) (to imitate; rival)

Choose to emulate successful habits while staying true to your individuality. Emulating the perseverance of achievers can guide you toward your goals. The goal of emulating others is not to copy but to find inspiration for your path.

◆ Endemic (স্থানীয়, একটি নির্দিষ্ট এলাকায় সীমাবদ্ধ) (prevailing among a specific group or area)

Dedication to excellence is endemic to all successful individuals. Overcoming challenges endemic to your environment demonstrates your resilience. Knowledge can help address problems endemic to your field of work.

◆ Enervate (দুর্বল করা, শক্তি হ্রাস করা) (to weaken)

Don't let setbacks enervate your determination to succeed. Avoid habits that enervate your focus—stay disciplined. Challenges may enervate you temporarily, but perseverance builds strength.

◆ Engender (সৃষ্টি করা, জন্ম দেওয়া) (to cause; produce)

Positive actions engender confidence and pave the way for success. Constructive habits engender the momentum needed to achieve big goals. Consistent effort will engender the opportunities you're looking for.

◆ Enhance (উন্নত করা, বৃদ্ধি করা) (to increase; improve)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

Every small step forward will enhance your chances of reaching your dreams. Hard work and practice enhance both your skills and confidence. Success often comes from continually striving to enhance yourself.

◆ Ephemeral (ক্ষণস্থায়ী, অল্পস্থায়ী) (short-lived; fleeting)

Don't let ephemeral failures discourage you; focus on long-term goals. Success requires appreciating both the ephemeral moments of joy and lasting achievements. Make the most of ephemeral opportunities—they often lead to great rewards.

◆ Equanimity (মানসিক শান্তি, ধীরস্থিরতা) (calmness of temperament; composure)

Facing challenges with equanimity helps you think clearly and make better decisions. Cultivating equanimity allows you to remain focused even under pressure. Success demands equanimity, especially in moments of uncertainty.

◆ Equivocate (সত্য গোপন করা, বিভ্রান্তিকর কথা বলা) (to lie; mislead; attempt to conceal the truth)

Avoid the temptation to equivocate; honesty builds lasting trust. Success comes from clarity, not efforts to equivocate your intentions. Never equivocate when presenting your goals—authenticity inspires confidence.

◆ Erudite (জ্ঞানী, পাণ্ডিত্যপূর্ণ) (learned; scholarly)

An erudite mind is built through consistent learning and curiosity. Surround yourself with erudite individuals to expand your knowledge. Strive to be erudite not for pride but to empower your journey toward success.

◆ Esoteric (দুর্বোধ্য, কয়েকজনের জন্যই বোধগম্য) (hard to understand; known only to the chosen few)

Mastering esoteric concepts requires dedication and persistence. Don't shy away from esoteric topics—they often lead to breakthroughs. Success often involves simplifying esoteric ideas for broader understanding.

◆ Eulogy (প্রশংসাপত্র, শোকস্মৃতিচারণ) (expression of praise, often on the occasion of someone's death)

Live a life that inspires others to write a eulogy of admiration for your character. A well-lived journey leaves a eulogy that celebrates your contributions. Strive to create a legacy worthy of a heartfelt eulogy.

◆ Euphemism (প্রতিকটু শব্দের পরিবর্তে কোমল শব্দ ব্যবহার) (mild expression in place of an unpleasant one)

Using a euphemism for constructive criticism makes feedback more effective. Success requires delivering truths without sugarcoating, but a euphemism can soften the impact. A well-placed euphemism can maintain harmony in difficult conversations.

◆ Exacerbate (অবনতি ঘটানো, তীব্র করা) (to worsen; embitter)

Procrastination can exacerbate stress—start small to regain control. Avoid negative thoughts that exacerbate self-doubt during challenges. Success requires addressing problems early before they exacerbate further.

◆ Exculpate (দোষ মুক্ত করা, নির্দোষ প্রমাণ করা) (to clear from blame)

Effort and results can exculpate you from doubts about your abilities. Success will exculpate your past failures by showcasing your determination. Learn to exculpate yourself from guilt by focusing on progress.

◆ Exigency (অত্যাৱশ্যক পরিস্থিতি, জরুরি চাহিদা) (urgent situation; pressing needs or demands)

Success often arises from responding well to moments of exigency. Preparing for exigencies ensures that you're never caught off guard. An exigency is an opportunity to prove your resilience and adaptability.

◆ Extrapolation (প্রক্ষেপণ, অনুমান) (projection; conjecture)

Use past successes as an extrapolation to visualize your future achievements. Success demands accurate extrapolation of trends and opportunities. Learning to balance intuition with logic sharpens your skill for extrapolation.

◆ Facetious (রসিক, প্রায়ই অনুপযুক্তভাবে মজার) (joking (often inappropriately); humorous)

Avoid being overly facetious in serious discussions—clarity is key to success. A facetious remark can lighten the mood but should never overshadow sincerity. Balance a facetious attitude with genuine effort to be taken seriously.

◆ Facilitate (সহজ করা, সাহায্য করা) (to help bring about; make less difficult)

A good mentor can facilitate your growth by providing valuable insights. Efficient time management will facilitate your journey toward success. Collaboration often facilitates quicker and better outcomes.

◆ Fallacious (ভুল, বিভ্রান্তিকর) (false; misleading)

Avoid fallacious assumptions about your abilities—trust in your potential. Success requires distinguishing between fallacious beliefs and actual obstacles. A clear plan prevents fallacious detours on your path to achievement.

◆ Fatuous (বোকা, মূর্খতাপূর্ণ) (brainless; inane; foolish, yet smug)

Avoid fatuous distractions that waste your time and energy. Success demands replacing fatuous habits with purposeful actions. A fatuous attitude toward challenges only delays meaningful progress.

◆ Fawning (চাটুকার, তোষামোদপূর্ণ আচরণ) (trying to please by behaving obsequiously, flattering, or cringing)

Success is earned through hard work, not by fawning over others. Avoid fawning behavior—it undermines your authenticity and confidence. Genuine relationships grow from mutual respect, not fawning flattery.

◆ Felicitous (যথাযথ, সুন্দরভাবে উপস্থাপিত) (apt; suitably expressed; well chosen)

A felicitous choice of words can inspire confidence and trust in your vision. Success requires felicitous decisions that align with your goals. A felicitous approach to challenges helps you find effective solutions.

◆ Fervor (উত্তাপ, তীব্র উদ্দীপনা) (glowing ardor; intensity of feeling)

Pursue your dreams with fervor, and your passion will inspire others. Fervor for learning is the foundation of every great achievement. Let the fervor of your determination overcome any obstacles in your path.

◆ Flag (দুর্বল হওয়া, ঢিলে হয়ে পড়া) (to droop; grow feeble)

Don't let your energy flag—consistency is the key to success. When your motivation begins to flag, revisit your reasons for pursuing your goals. Avoid routines that make your enthusiasm flag; keep your efforts dynamic.

◆ Fledgling (অনভিজ্ঞ, নতুন শুরুকৃত) (inexperienced)

Even a fledgling effort can grow into success with dedication. Learn from mistakes as a fledgling to build a strong foundation for the future. Every expert was once a fledgling—embrace your journey of growth.

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

◆ Flout (উপেক্ষা করা, অবজ্ঞা করা) (to reject; mock; show contempt for)

Don't flout constructive advice—it often leads to valuable growth. Success requires respecting rules and guidelines, not flouting them. Avoid the tendency to flout challenges; face them head-on with confidence.

◆ Foment (উত্তেজিত করা, উসকানি দেওয়া) (to stir up; instigate)

Positive habits foment lasting success over time. Avoid those who try to foment negativity—focus on constructive environments. Success is achieved by fomenting collaboration, not conflict.

◆ Forestall (অগ্রিম প্রতিরোধ করা) (to prevent by taking action in advance)

Proper planning can forestall potential setbacks on your journey to success. Self-discipline helps forestall distractions that derail progress. Addressing problems early forestalls unnecessary stress later.

◆ Frugality (মিতব্যয়িতা, সংযমী হওয়া) (thrift; economy)

Practicing frugality ensures that you can invest in long-term goals. Success requires frugality with time and energy, focusing only on priorities. Frugality in resources often leads to greater stability and freedom.

◆ Futile (অকার্যকর, নিরর্থক) (useless; hopeless; ineffectual)

Believing your efforts are futile can prevent you from seeing their potential impact. A clear plan ensures your work is purposeful, not futile. Avoid futile pursuits and focus on meaningful, achievable goals.

◆ Gainsay (অস্বীকার করা) (to deny)

No one can gainsay the power of perseverance in achieving success. The evidence of your hard work will gainsay any doubts about your abilities. Avoid trying to gainsay constructive criticism—it's often a tool for growth.

◆ Garrulous (বাচাল, অতিরিক্ত কথা বলা) (loquacious; talkative; wordy)

Avoid garrulous discussions that waste time—focus on meaningful conversations. Success requires clarity and conciseness, not garrulous explanations. A garrulous approach can dilute the power of your message.

◆ Goad (উত্তেজিত করা, উৎসাহিত করা) (to urge on)

Let your dreams goad you into action and persistent effort. Challenges often goad you to develop skills and resilience. Use constructive feedback to goad yourself toward continuous improvement.

◆ Gouge (অতিরিক্ত মূল্য নেওয়া) (to overcharge)

Don't let obstacles gouge your energy—stay focused on priorities. Avoid environments that gouge your confidence or motivation. Instead of allowing negativity to gouge your enthusiasm, strengthen your resolve.

◆ Grandiloquent (আড়ম্বরপূর্ণ, অত্যধিক আড়ম্বরপূর্ণ ভাষা ব্যবহার করা) (pompous; bombastic; using high-sounding language)

Avoid grandiloquent promises—let your actions speak for themselves. Success comes from clarity and sincerity, not grandiloquent exaggerations. A grandiloquent tone may attract attention but rarely builds trust.

◆ Gregarious (মিশুক, সামাজিক) (sociable)

Being gregarious helps you build networks that support your success. A gregarious personality fosters collaboration and shared growth. Surround yourself with gregarious individuals who inspire and uplift you.

◆ Guileless (নিরহংকার, প্রতারণামুক্ত) (without deceit)

A guileless approach builds trust and respect in relationships. Success is easier to achieve when your intentions are clear and guileless. Let your guileless character inspire others to believe in your vision.

◆ Gullible (সহজে প্রতারিত হয় এমন) (easily deceived)

Avoid being gullible by questioning and verifying information before acting. Success demands critical thinking to prevent being gullible to false promises. Learn to balance trust with caution to avoid appearing gullible.

◆ Harangue (দীর্ঘ, আবেগপূর্ণ বক্তৃতা) (long, passionate, and vehement speech)

Avoid turning your advice into a harangue—focus on inspiring others. A positive harangue filled with encouragement can motivate your peers. Success is built on action, not just delivering passionate harangues.

◆ Homogeneous (একজাতীয়, একই ধরনের) (of the same kind)

A homogeneous team may lack diversity—embrace different perspectives for success. Success requires balancing homogeneous efforts with unique, creative ideas. Avoid homogeneous routines that hinder innovation.

◆ Hyperbole (অতিরঞ্জিত কথা) (exaggeration; overstatement)

Avoid hyperbole in your goals—set realistic and achievable targets. Success comes from tangible results, not hyperbolic promises. Let your achievements speak for themselves without the need for hyperbole.

◆ Iconoclastic (প্রচলিত বিশ্বাস বা রীতির বিরোধিতা করা) (attacking cherished traditions)

An iconoclastic mindset can lead to innovation and breakthroughs. Success often requires iconoclastic thinking to challenge outdated norms. Embrace iconoclastic ideas that align with your unique vision for the future.

◆ Idolatry (মূর্তিপূজা, অত্যধিক প্রশংসা) (worship of idols; excessive admiration)

Avoid idolatry of success—focus on the process and consistent effort. Idolatry of others' achievements can distract you from creating your own. True growth requires action, not idolatry of unrealistic ideals.

◆ Immutable (অপরিবর্তনীয়) (unchangeable)

Your commitment to your dreams should remain immutable, no matter the challenges. Success is built on immutable values such as perseverance and integrity. While plans may change, let your vision stay immutable.

◆ Impair (ক্ষতি করা, দুর্বল করা) (to injure; hurt)

Negative thoughts can impair your confidence—stay optimistic and focused. Procrastination may impair your progress, so act promptly. Protect your mental clarity from distractions that could impair your growth.

◆ Impassive (অনুভূতিহীন, শান্ত) (without feeling; imperturbable; stoical)

Facing criticism with an impassive attitude ensures you stay productive. An impassive mindset helps you remain calm under pressure. Success often demands an impassive approach to setbacks.

◆ Impede (বাধা দেওয়া) (to hinder; block)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

Identify and eliminate habits that impede your progress. Self-doubt can impede success—replace it with confidence and determination. Effective time management prevents distractions from impeding your growth.

◆ Impermeable (অভেদ্য, যার মধ্য দিয়ে প্রবেশ করা যায় না) (not permitting passage through its substance)

A focused mind acts as an impermeable barrier against negativity. Let your dedication be impermeable to distractions and doubts. An impermeable work ethic shields you from setbacks.

◆ Imperturbable (অচঞ্চল, শান্ত) (calm; placid)

An imperturbable attitude helps you navigate stressful situations with ease. Stay imperturbable in the face of criticism—it reflects confidence. Success demands an imperturbable focus on long-term goals.

◆ Impervious (অভেদ্য, প্রভাবিত হয় না এমন) (impenetrable; incapable of being damaged or distressed)

Be impervious to negativity and focus on your potential. An impervious mindset shields you from external distractions. Success requires being impervious to failure while learning from it.

◆ Implacable (অনমনীয়, শান্ত করা যায় না এমন) (incapable of being pacified)

Your drive for success should be as implacable as your passion for growth. Don't let an implacable fear of failure stop you from trying. Success requires implacable determination to overcome obstacles.

◆ Implicit (নির্ধারিত নয় তবে অনুমিত) (understood but not stated)

Trust in your abilities may remain implicit, but actions make them visible. An implicit belief in yourself drives progress even during doubt. Success requires understanding both implicit and explicit opportunities.

◆ Implode (অন্তর্ভেদ হওয়া, ভিতরে বিস্ফোরিত হওয়া) (to burst inward)

Avoid letting stress implode your focus—practice mindfulness and balance. Success prevents your plans from imploding through careful preparation. A strong support system stops emotional struggles from causing an implosion.

◆ Inadvertently (অবচেতনভাবে, অসাবধানতাবশত) (unintentionally; by oversight; carelessly)

Avoid inadvertently neglecting self-care while pursuing your goals. Mistakes made inadvertently can become lessons for growth. Success requires minimizing inadvertent errors through attention to detail.

◆ Inchoate (অপরিণত, প্রাথমিক পর্যায়ে থাকা) (recently begun; rudimentary; elementary)

Your plans may be inchoate, but consistent effort will shape them into reality. Success starts with inchoate ideas that grow through persistence. Even inchoate skills can develop into mastery with practice.

◆ Incongruity (অসামঞ্জস্য, অমিল) (lack of harmony; absurdity)

Eliminate incongruities between your actions and your goals to stay focused. Success demands resolving incongruities in your priorities. Incongruity in your plans can lead to delays—stay organized.

◆ Inconsequential (তুচ্ছ গুরুত্বহীন) (insignificant; unimportant)

Avoid wasting energy on inconsequential distractions—focus on your main goals. Small setbacks are inconsequential when compared to your long-term vision. Success is about ignoring inconsequential doubts and believing in yourself.

◆ Incorporate (অন্তর্ভুক্ত করা, একীভূত করা) (to introduce something into a larger whole; combine; unite)

Incorporate feedback into your work to continuously improve. Success often involves incorporating diverse ideas into a cohesive plan. Learn to incorporate discipline into your daily routine for better results.

◆ Indeterminate (অপরিবর্তনীয়, অস্পষ্ট) (uncertain; not clearly fixed; indefinite)

Your future may feel indeterminate, but persistence shapes it into clarity. Success requires making decisive moves even in indeterminate situations. Avoid letting indeterminate fears hinder your growth—stay focused.

◆ Indigence (দারিদ্র্য) (poverty)

Overcoming indigence requires creativity, resourcefulness, and hard work. Indigence can be a powerful motivator to strive for a better future. Success is about rising above indigence and building opportunities for yourself and others.

◆ Indolent (অলস, কর্মবিমুখ) (lazy)

Avoid indolent habits that delay your progress toward your goals. Success requires replacing indolent tendencies with proactive efforts. Don't let indolence undermine the potential of your hard work.

◆ Inert (নিষ্ক্রিয়, গতিহীন) (inactive; lacking power to move)

Shake off inert moments by taking small, purposeful steps toward your goals. Success demands breaking free from inert routines and embracing action. An inert approach to challenges delays meaningful progress.

◆ Ingenuous (সরল, অকৃত্রিম) (naive and trusting; young; unsophisticated)

An ingenuous attitude can foster trust and openness in relationships. Use your ingenuous nature to approach challenges with fresh perspectives. Success requires balancing ingenuous optimism with calculated strategies.

◆ Inherent (অন্তর্নিহিত, প্রকৃতিগত) (firmly established by nature or habit)

Discipline is an inherent quality of every successful individual. Recognize the inherent potential within you and nurture it through effort. Success is built on inherent traits like persistence and curiosity.

◆ Innocuous (অক্ষতিকর) (harmless)

Constructive feedback, even if sharp, is innocuous and helps you grow. Success requires identifying innocuous habits that can be improved. Avoid misinterpreting innocuous challenges as insurmountable obstacles.

◆ Insensible (অসচেতন, অনুভূতিহীন) (unconscious; unresponsive)

Avoid becoming insensible to new opportunities—stay alert and proactive. Success demands avoiding an insensible attitude toward feedback and learning. A mindful approach ensures you're not insensible to valuable lessons.

◆ Insinuate (ইঙ্গিত করা, পরোক্ষভাবে বোঝানো) (to hint; imply; creep in)

Instead of insinuating doubts, address them directly and find solutions. Success requires clarity—don't let fear or hesitation insinuate themselves into your mindset. A positive attitude prevents negativity from insinuating itself into your efforts.

◆ Inspid (নীরস, মসৃণ) (lacking in flavor; dull)

Avoid insipid routines—keep your efforts dynamic and meaningful. Success demands an engaging journey, not an insipid one. Replace insipid ideas with innovative approaches that fuel growth.

◆ Insularity (সংকীর্ণতা, বিচ্ছিন্নতা) (narrow-mindedness; isolation)

Overcoming insularity involves seeking diverse perspectives and experiences. Success requires breaking free from insularity to embrace collaboration. Avoid insularity in your learning—explore new fields and challenges.

◆ Intractable (জেদী, নিয়ন্ত্রণহীন) (unruly; stubborn; unyielding)

Success demands working on intractable problems with patience and strategy. Avoid becoming intractable in your habits—adaptability is key. Tackling intractable challenges builds resilience and confidence.

◆ Intransigence (আপসহীনতা, দৃঢ়তা) (refusal of any compromise; stubbornness)

Balancing intransigence with flexibility ensures long-term success. Avoid intransigence in teamwork—collaboration often leads to better outcomes. Success is about knowing when to stand firm and when to compromise.

◆ Inundate (প্লাবিত করা, অভিভূত করা) (to overwhelm; flood; submerge)

Don't let distractions inundate your focus—prioritize effectively. Success requires managing tasks so they don't inundate your schedule. Avoid being inundated by negativity; surround yourself with positivity.

◆ Inured (অভ্যস্ত, কঠোর) (accustomed; hardened)

You'll become inured to challenges as you face them with determination. Success demands being inured to failure while continuously improving. Use difficulties to make yourself inured to adversity.

◆ Invective (অপবাদ, গালাগালি) (abuse)

Avoid responding to invective with anger—stay focused on your goals. Success requires ignoring invective and staying committed to your path. Use invective as motivation to prove doubters wrong through action.

◆ Irrascible (রাগী, সহজে রেগে যায় এমন) (irritable; easily angered)

Avoid an irascible attitude—it hinders collaboration and progress. Success comes to those who replace irascible reactions with calm responses. Practice mindfulness to manage irascible tendencies in stressful situations.

◆ Irresolute (অস্থিরচিত্ত, দ্বিধাগ্রস্ত) (uncertain how to act; weak)

Replace irresolute thoughts with decisive actions to maintain momentum. Success requires clarity of purpose—don't let irresoluteness hold you back. When feeling irresolute, revisit your goals and regain focus.

◆ Itinerary (স্রমণসূচি) (plan of a trip)

An itinerary for your goals keeps your journey structured and purposeful. Success requires creating a clear itinerary for achieving your dreams. Follow your itinerary, but remain flexible to adapt to new opportunities.

◆ Laconic (সংক্ষিপ্ত এবং সরল) (brief and to the point)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

A laconic response saves time and conveys clarity. Success demands laconic communication to avoid confusion. Being laconic in your goals shows focus and determination.

◆ Lassitude (ক্লান্তি, অবসাদ) (languor; weariness)

Overcome lassitude by taking short breaks to recharge your energy. Consistent effort prevents lassitude from delaying your progress. Success requires pushing through moments of lassitude with determination.

◆ Latent (অপ্রকাশিত, সুপ্ত) (potential but undeveloped; dormant; hidden)

Your latent talents can emerge with consistent practice. Success reveals the latent potential hidden within you. Don't let latent abilities go to waste—nurture them into strengths.

◆ Laud (প্রশংসা করা) (to praise)

Laud your small victories to stay motivated for larger goals. Genuine efforts always deserve laud, even in challenging times. Learn to laud others' success—it fosters collaboration and positivity.

◆ Lethargic (অলস, নিস্তেজ) (drowsy; dull)

Avoid a lethargic routine—stay active and focused on your goals. Success requires replacing lethargic habits with energetic actions. A clear purpose eliminates the risk of becoming lethargic.

◆ Levee (বাঁধ, বন্যা প্রতিরোধক পাথরের দেওয়াল) (stone embankment to prevent flooding)

Strong discipline acts as a levee against distractions that hinder success. Build a levee of confidence to prevent setbacks from overwhelming you. Your habits serve as a levee protecting your progress.

◆ Levity (উদাসীনতা, হালকাপনা) (lack of seriousness or steadiness; frivolity)

Avoid levity in important matters—focus with seriousness on your goals. Success requires balancing levity with moments of dedicated effort. A touch of levity can lighten stress but should not derail focus.

◆ Log (রেকর্ড রাখা) (record of a voyage or flight; record of day-to-day activities)

Keep a log of your progress to track growth and identify improvements. Success demands a detailed log of lessons learned along the way. A daily log ensures accountability and motivates consistent effort.

◆ Loquacious (বাচাল, অতিরিক্ত কথা বলা) (talkative)

Avoid being overly loquacious—let your actions speak louder than words. Success requires concise communication, not loquacious chatter. A loquacious approach can sometimes dilute the clarity of your message.

◆ Lucid (পরিষ্কার, বোধগম্য) (easily understood; clear; intelligible)

A lucid plan makes achieving your goals much easier. Success requires lucid thinking to avoid confusion and stay focused. Present your ideas in a lucid manner to inspire confidence in others.

◆ Luminous (উজ্জ্বল, আলোকিত) (shining; issuing light)

Let your passion for success shine as luminous as your goals. A positive attitude creates a luminous path even in dark times. Success makes your efforts appear luminous to those around you.

◆ Magnanimity (উদারতা, মহানুভবতা) (generosity)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

◆ Negate (অস্বীকার করা, নাকচ করা) (to cancel out; nullify; deny)

Procrastination can negate the effects of your hard work—stay consistent. Success demands effort that builds momentum rather than actions that negate progress. A positive mindset helps negate the impact of negative thoughts.

◆ Neophyte (নতুন, নবীন) (recent convert; beginner)

Even as a neophyte, enthusiasm and effort can drive remarkable growth. Every expert was once a neophyte—embrace your learning phase. Success requires humility and perseverance as a neophyte.

◆ Obdurate (অনমনীয়, একগুঁয়ে) (stubborn)

Avoid being obdurate in ignoring constructive feedback—adapt and grow. Success demands flexibility, not an obdurate attitude toward challenges. Balance obdurate determination with openness to change.

◆ Obsequious (তোষামোদপূর্ণ, অতি বিনয়ী) (lavishly attentive; servile; sycophantic)

Avoid being obsequious; authentic respect earns true admiration. Success requires confidence, not the obsequious flattery of others. A genuine attitude is more valuable than obsequious behavior.

◆ Obviate (অপ্রয়োজনীয় করে তোলা, দূর করা) (to make unnecessary; get rid of)

Effective planning can obviate potential setbacks and delays. Success demands proactive steps to obviate distractions and inefficiencies. Building good habits helps to obviate unnecessary stress in your journey.

◆ Occlude (বন্ধ করা, আটকানো) (to shut; close)

Don't let fear occlude your vision for success—stay focused on your goals. Positive habits ensure negativity doesn't occlude your progress. Remove barriers that occlude your ability to move forward effectively.

◆ Officious (হস্তক্ষেপকারী, অতিমাত্রায় সাহায্যপ্রার্থী) (meddlesome; excessively pushy in offering one's services)

Avoid being officious in offering advice—wait for the right moment. Success requires collaboration, not officious interference in others' work. Respect boundaries to avoid appearing officious and overbearing.

◆ Onerous (কষ্টকর, ভারী) (burdensome)

Even onerous tasks become manageable when broken into smaller steps. Success requires embracing onerous responsibilities with determination. A clear purpose makes onerous challenges feel worthwhile.

◆ Opprobrium (অপবাদ, নিন্দা) (infamy; vilification)

Ignore opprobrium from critics—focus on proving your capabilities through action. Success silences opprobrium with tangible achievements. Turn opprobrium into motivation to reach your full potential.

◆ Oscillate (দোলনা, দ্বিধাগ্রস্ত হওয়া) (to vibrate; waver)

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

Avoid letting your focus oscillate between conflicting goals—stay committed. Success requires decisiveness, not oscillating between fear and ambition. When your motivation oscillates, revisit your reasons for starting.

◆ Ostentatious (আড়ম্বরপূর্ণ, লোক দেখানোর জন্য) (showy; pretentious; trying to attract attention)

Avoid being ostentatious—let your achievements speak for themselves. Success is about substance, not ostentatious displays of wealth or status. A modest and focused approach often outshines ostentatious behavior.

◆ Paragon (অগ্রদূত, শ্রেষ্ঠ উদাহরণ) (model of perfection)

Strive to be a paragon of discipline and dedication in your journey. Success comes from emulating the qualities of a paragon of excellence. Be a paragon of persistence to inspire others on their paths.

◆ Partisan (পক্ষপাতপূর্ণ, দলীয়) (one-sided; prejudiced; committed to a party)

Avoid being overly partisan—success requires an open mind and fairness. Collaboration requires setting aside partisan biases to achieve shared goals. Balance commitment with understanding to avoid partisan conflicts.

◆ Pathological (রোগসংক্রান্ত) (pertaining to disease)

A pathological fear of failure can hinder growth—embrace challenges instead. Avoid developing a pathological reliance on excuses—take responsibility for progress. Success requires addressing pathological habits that block your potential.

◆ Paucity (ঋদ্ধতা, অভাব) (scarcity)

A paucity of resources can fuel creativity and determination. Success requires overcoming the paucity of time through effective planning. Turn a paucity of opportunities into motivation to create your own path.

◆ Pedantic (শিক্ষা নিয়ে অহংকারপূর্ণ বা গোঁড়া) (showing off learning; bookish)

Avoid a pedantic approach—focus on practical application of knowledge. Success demands understanding, not pedantic displays of facts. A pedantic attitude can alienate others—prioritize meaningful engagement.

◆ Penchant (ঝোঁক, বিশেষ পছন্দ) (strong inclination; liking)

A penchant for learning ensures continuous growth toward success. Cultivate a penchant for discipline to achieve your goals. Let your penchant for innovation lead you to new opportunities.

◆ Penury (চরম দারিদ্র্য, কৃপণতা) (severe poverty; stinginess)

Rising above penury requires creativity, perseverance, and resilience. Generosity often replaces penury of spirit with abundance in relationships. Success means transforming penury into progress through effort and resourcefulness.

◆ Perennial (দীর্ঘস্থায়ী, বার্ষিক) (something long-lasting)

A perennial commitment to self-improvement leads to consistent success. True values are perennial and guide you through all challenges. Success grows from perennial habits of discipline and focus.

◆ Perfidious (বিশ্বাসঘাতক, বিশ্বাসযোগ্য নয়) (treacherous; disloyal)

Avoid perfidious behaviors—they erode trust and hinder collaboration. Success requires loyalty and integrity, not perfidious tactics. Build relationships based on trust, avoiding the pitfalls of perfidiousness.

GRE 333 HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

◆ Perfunctory (অগভীর, উত্সাহহীন) (superficial; not thorough; lacking interest, care, or enthusiasm)
